WOODROW WILSON.

THOMAS RILEY MARSHALL.

DEMOCRATS WIN SWEEPING VICTORY.

Big Majority in House of Representatives and Probable Control of Both Houses.

With 37 States for Wilson, 6 for Roosevelt and 5 for Taft, the Result is Without Parallel in History of Presidential Elections.

Twenty-One States Elect Democratic Governors, Seven Republican, and One Progressive—John F. Butler, Republican, Wins Over Roberson in Circuit Judge Race—Langley and Fields Re-elected—Turner Wins for Appellate Judge.

By the greatest majority given to a presidential candidate in the history of the nation Woodrow Wilson has been elected to the greatest office known to government. Not only so, but both Houses of Congress will be of the same political faith. So far as the race for the presidency is concerned the result was foretold months ago. From the very nature and condition of things it could not have been otherwise. It is useless at this hour to say what the conditions were, or to comment upon them. Every reader of the newspapers knows what brought about the success of the Democratic National ticket, and it is not profitable to strain the milk again.

By the election of Woodrow Wilson and a Democratic Congress, both Senate and House, there will be a complete change in the administration of the affairs of the country, but there will be no Revolution. The United States is neither Mexico nor yet South America. On the Fourth of next March President Wilson and his cabinet will take hold of the affairs of the Government, and there will not be the slightest jar. As a people we have prospered, and it is our belief that as a people we will continue to prosper and that under a proper down revision of the tariff the laboring man, the wage-earner, in fact all classes but the Trusts will prosper more than they prospered under the policy that catered to the rich alone.

With the assumption of its tremendous power the Democratic party assumes a tremendous responsibility. Its President and its platform have promised much, and it may rest assured that the people will hold it and its leaders to a strict account. The NEWS believes that the Democratic party will redeem every pledge made by either its magnificent leader or its platform.

Will Probably Control Both Houses.

Washington, Nov. 6.—With an overwhelming Democratic majority in the House of Representatives, returns to-day indicate a probability of the success of a sufficient number of Democratic senatorial candidates to give the Democrats control of both branches of Congress. There, however, still in sufficient uncertainly regarding the Senate to make the situation indefinite. The undecided character of the outlook concerning the Senate is due to the fact that in order to outline the prospect it is necessary to have returns on the Legislature from the various States which, owing to the fact that the members of Legislatures are counted among minor offices, are generally among the last to be received.

Wilson's Plurality About 1,355,000.

Later telegrams show that the Wilson column of States numbers 41. Taft has three States and one dozen electoral votes Wilson has captured Tennessee, but the Republicans will probably have the State officers.

In Maryland Wilson has a plurality of 54,000 over Roosevelt.

In Kentucky Roosevelt ranks second, but he is 100,000 behind Woodrow Wilson.

Wilson Carries 40 States.

With three states missing and several states represented by estimates instead of final figures, Wilson is given a total plurality of 1,355,000. In the states he has carried, Roosevelt carried his states by an aggregate plurality of 138,000, while Taft's pluralities in the three states of Utah, Vermont and Idaho are estimated at 8,000.

The states still in the doubtful list are Kansas and Minnesota.

Wilson's Majority in Kentucky.

Unofficial returns received from 101 Kentucky counties out of 120 in the State indicate that Gov. Wilson will have an unprecedented plurality, probably of 100,000, over Taft and a safe majority over the combined opposition. The missing counties are nearly all in remote mountain districts outside of telegraphic communication.

The real feature of the Kentucky election is the closeness of the race between Taft and Roosevelt for second place. The figures received show the President leads the "Bull Moose" leader by about 3,000, and this probably will be increased when the full returns from the missing mountain counties are received.

Returns show the Democrats have returned nine Congressmen and the Republicans two. In the Eleventh district Caleb Powers is elected by a greatly reduced plurality. Unofficial reports from Somerset say that Powers has defeated Smith, the Democratic candidate, by about 2,000. Seavey, the Progressive candidate, finished a strong third.

Turner Seems To Have It.

Concerning the election of Appellate Judge the Enquirer of Thursday says:

Yesterday's convictions were doubly reaffirmed to-day when more complete returns from all sections of Kentucky show that no race in which a Democrat stood given the faintest chance has been lost. Last night's doubt as to the safety of C. J. Turner, of Mt. Sterling, in his race for the Appellate Judgeship in the Seventh Kentucky District, was swept away early this morning when later returns proved that he had defeated Judge A. J. Kirk, Rep., by a majority of at least 2,500.

Butler Wins in Judge's Race.

Practically complete returns from all the 28 precincts in Pike county give John F. Butler a majority of 138 votes over Judge J. M. Roberson in the Circuit Judge race, and Letcher county will add about 60 additional majority to this seal victory. Butler being the Republican candidate, should have rallied a much larger majority in Pike county alone. It is now safe to say his total majority in this judicial district will not exceed 200 votes.

West Virginia Dry.

Returns not all in, but indications are that state-wide Prohibition in West Virginia has won by about 30,000. This will banish the saloons from the state.

Jas. A. Hughes Re-elected.

Former Louisiana James A. Hughes, of Huntington, is returned to Congress from West Virginia by a safe majority.

Langley Wins in Tenth.

Lucky John Langley goes back to Washington as Congressman from the Tenth.

They Caught The Crowd.

The Young People's Missionary Society of the M. E. Church South gave a very successful Halloween party in the Evans building on Thursday night. The young ladies had published a seasonable menu, and it was served in a style particularly pleasing. The decorations, the eatables, the Society itself caught the crowd and held it until the cash receipts showed a very comfortable sum. After paying all expenses the treasury will be richer by about twenty-dollars.

FARMERS INTERESTED.

The Agricultural School Holds Successful Session In Louisa.

The Extension Division of the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station which is conducting a series of "Extension Schools" over the State, is now in the Big Sandy valley holding schools of agriculture and making an agricultural survey. The schools were at Pikeville, Prestonsburg, Paintsville and are now in Louisa.

Prof. T. R. Bryant, who is in charge of the work, said in a recent interview:

"Each section of the State presents its peculiar problems but at the same time its peculiar possibilities. In many of the sections visited, work has already been done by the extension service and the results, before the very eyes of the local people are so striking that the demand for further instruction and help is greater than can be properly cared for.

"The instructors of the extension schools report from their reconnaissance that fruit growing and poultry raising are the most promising industries for the mountains and they are getting in touch with farmers with whom they will later take up systematic work on their home farms.

"The agricultural possibilities of Kentucky are beyond comprehension and it is a living reproach that fruit, dairy products and other food-stuffs are continually shipped into our State.

"While it is a large task to put Kentucky agriculture where it belongs, it is predicted that within a few years the importation of farm products will be replaced by a brisk export business, thus putting our balance of trade in better shape."

The agricultural schools and agricultural survey in the mountains are being conducted by Prof. Bryant who is superintendent of the Extension Division of the Experiment Station; H. B. Hendrick and H. R. Carmody, two able men from Michigan, were recently added to that department.

Interest in farming and the allied branches is surely looking up in this section. The Agricultural Extension School opened here on Wednesday, and those in charge are delighted with the success which attends the enterprise. The school is being taught in the college building and the attendance and the interest manifested are both quite flattering. The teachers are Prof. T. R. Bryant, H. B. Carmody and H. B. Hendrick, are competent men, thoroughly versed in their respective lines, and possess the happy faculty of creating and holding interest in what they say. This public school of agriculture, dairying, fruit and stock growing—it doesn't cost you a cent—is a great boon to any community in which it is held, and you should not fail to become a student. It will continue Friday and Saturday, and much of value can be learned in even this short time.

HOSPITAL NOTES.

Reub. Wellman, of Walbridge, is in the hospital, suffering with a stomach trouble.

Joe Bishop, of Mossy Bottom, Floyd county, was brought to the hospital Tuesday, sick of typhoid fever.

Orville Harper, of Pikeville, was severely hurt by falling slate in a mine and was brought down Tuesday for treatment. The injury is in his back, and as a result he is partially paralyzed.

A BARREL OF WASTE.

The alarm of fire about 4 o'clock on Friday morning last was caused by the burning of a barrel of "waste." Some rascals who thought they were having a good time took the waste from a car and set it on fire. It made a bright light, leading many to think the flour mill was burning.

B. & O. ENGINEERING CORPS.

The B and O. surveying party was at work near the old David Garred place last week. This fact is only a "straw," but it seems to show which way the wind blows.

THE CHURCHES.

Louisa churches were well attended last Sunday. Rev. Olus Hamilton, pastor of the Baptist church, preached morning and night. In the afternoon Capt. F. F. Freese conducted a well attended and interesting prayer service.

At the M. E. Church South the pastor, Rev. J. W. Crites preached in the morning. The Presiding Elder, Rev. O. F. Williams, preached, after which the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered.

District Superintendent J. B. McClay, of Ashland held his initial service at the M. E. Church in the morning, holding the Communion service at the close of the sermon. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Plummer, preached as usual at night. This church is to be congratulated upon having Dr. McClay as Superintendent.

Elder John Simpson, of Louisville, preached at the Christian Church moving and evening, the regular pastor, Elder Summers, being absent.

The Rev. Charles E. Crusoe was in Prestonsburg Sunday. He will hold the usual services at the Episcopal chapel next Sunday at 10:45 a. m. and 4:00 p. m.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Two Children of George Stumbo, of Felix, W. Va., the Victims.

On Monday last, Nov. 4, a large frame building occupied by George Stumbo and family, located at Felix, W. Va., a station on the N. and W. railway, 14 miles east of Ft. Gay, was totally destroyed by fire, and two children, a boy 8 years old, and a girl of 8 months, were burned to death. The father was absent when the fire occurred, and the mother had gone to the barn for corn, leaving the children alone in the house. Returning she saw flames bursting from an open door. A large crowd gathered at the scene of the disaster. In a very short time and every possible effort was made to save the helpless children, but they perished before the eyes of the distracted mother. The large general store of G. M. Salmons, in which the postoffice was kept, was saved from the flames only by the most heroic efforts. The residence of Mr. Salmons was in imminent danger and was saved only by hard work. Stumbo is a son of Marion Stumbo, formerly of this State. This very distressing occurrence has shocked the entire community in which it happened.

FOR THE GOLDEN WEST.

Mr. H. A. Peters, who has been living in California several years, and who has recently been visiting relatives in this section, left for his home, Calexico, Cal., Wednesday. Mr. Peters is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Peters, who accompanied their son to his far off home. Enroute they will visit the daughter, Mrs. Alice Singer, of Findlay, O., and Mr. Mike Peters, of Parkville, Kans. They will also visit Los Angeles and San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Peters will remain in California until next spring and may possibly make it their home.

GOV. M'CREARY

Writes About Corporations and Franchises.

Points Out Law Requiring Attorney General To Recommend Before No Can Employ Counsel.

Governor McCreary has issued a statement in response to the letter addressed to him and to others by Mr. Justus Goebel. The Governor declares that "all persons who have made proper investigation know that the corporations in Kentucky have not been paying their just proportion of the taxes," and says that if the corporations which have instituted the suits persist in their efforts "the State of Kentucky and the cause of the taxpayers should be defended in the courts by counsel in every way well equipped, and by all the attorneys that may be needed to meet and cope with the many able attorneys who instituted the suits."

The Governor's statement follows:

"The letter of Mr. Justus Goebel, addressed to me and to all administrative and legislative officers of the State, and to all citizens of the Commonwealth who are interested in equal and uniform taxation, has been published generally in the newspapers and contains valuable information and important suggestions."

"He was present at the meetings of the Board of Valuation and Assessment, which occupied about five months and must be well-informed on the subjects to which he refers."

"The Board of Valuation and Assessment, consisting of Henry M. Bosworth, State Auditor, Thomas S. Rhea, State Treasurer, and C. F. Creel, Secretary of State, did their work well and faithfully."

"All persons who have made proper investigation know that corporations in Kentucky have not been paying their just proportion of the taxes and there has been unjust and burdensome taxation upon the people as compared with what has been required to be paid by the large corporations of our State."

"I am opposed to discrimination, and believe that taxation should be uniform, and the corporations and the people assessed and taxed justly and fairly."

"In my message to the last Legislature, I recommended the passage of eight important bills, and all were enacted into law except the public utilities bill, which gave the Governor authority to appoint an assessment and valuation commission to do what the existing Board of Valuation and Assessment has done; but, as the members of that board has not under former administrations been active, I had no knowledge that the existing board would be active until I was assured by the members that they would do their duty and be just and fair, and the public utilities bill was not passed. "The existing Board of Valuation and Assessment based their 1912 assessment on evidence of the values placed before them at great length, and I am sure they have presented what they believe, after careful examination and convincing proof, are just and fair assessments; and of about four hundred corporations assessed, only eight have protested in the courts."

"The eight suits that have been brought against the State may be contested through the Federal and State courts, and are of great importance to the people and the State treasury. They involve for the State about four hundred thousand dollars annually, and for the county and city taxing districts about eight hundred thousand dollars annually or a total of about one million two hundred thousand dollars."

"When the present administration came into office, less than one year ago, the State's indebtedness was more than one million dollars. With just and fair taxation the debt of the State would soon be extinguished; and I regret that important and powerful corporations are resisting the action of the Board of Valuation and Assessment and endeavoring to perpetuate taxation which their own admissions show to be unjust and unequal."

"If the corporations which have instituted suits persist in their efforts, the State of Kentucky and the cause of the taxpayers should be defended in the courts by counsel in every way well-equipped, and by all the attorneys that may be needed to meet and cope with the many able attorneys who instituted the suits."

"I have perfect confidence in the ability and known loyalty to the State's interests of Attorney General Garnett and his three assistants, and also in the able and well-equipped attorney, Mr. Rich, who, by request of the Attorney General, in writing, I have employed but I will be pleased to appoint another Attorney, or two others, if the Attorney General, in writing, should ask me to do so, as, under the law, I cannot employ counsel to represent the State without his request."

"Subsection 5 of sections 112-15 (article 2, page 218) of the Kentucky Statutes provides:

"The Attorney General and his Assistants shall attend to all litigation and business in or out of the State, required of his or them under this act, or other existing law or laws hereinafter enacted, and also any litigation or business that any State officer may have in connection with or growing out of his official duty; and no State officer, board of trustees or the head of any department or institution of the State shall have authority to employ or be represented by any other counsel or attorney at law unless the emergency arises which, in the opinion of the Attorney General, requires the employment of other counsel, in order to properly protect the interests of the Commonwealth, in which event the Attorney General shall, in writing, setting forth reasons for such employment, request the Governor to employ such additional counsel. . . ."

"Before such counsel is employed, his fee and compensation shall be agreed upon and fixed by written contract by the Governor and said counsel, subject to the approval of the Attorney General."

"It is, therefore, apparent that I cannot appoint an attorney to assist the Attorney General in these suits until the Attorney General, in writing, requests me to do so, and also agrees with me on the compensation the counsel employed is to receive."

FREE SEED TESTING FOR KENTUCKY.

It may not be generally known to farmers and others in Kentucky that the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station is well equipped to test samples that may be submitted with a view to learning their quality, either as to purity or germination. A new laboratory for this work has been planned and is now nearing completion. When our incubators and other appliances are established it will be one of the most complete in this country.

The Station has already won a reputation for work of this sort not only in this country, but in Europe, and those sending samples can be assured that they will be tested well and as promptly as our facilities will permit. Samples will be examined in the order in which they are received.

To get fair tests it is necessary that the sample be taken from a bulk lot after a thorough mixing of the seeds. Samples of red clover, sapling clover, alsike clover, alfalfa, orchard grass, English blue-grass and rye grass should contain two ounces each. Samples of Kentucky blue-grass, Canada blue-grass, red top and timothy should weigh one ounce each. The samples should be put in a stout paper envelope, not in ordinary correspondence envelopes because these are easily broken in the postoffice and let the seeds escape. Put your complete address, plainly written, on each envelope sent us and forward to the Division of Entomology and Botany, Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station, Lexington, Ky. In writing to us always state whether both purity and germination tests are wanted.

Editorial Comment

Wilson—That's all.

We cheer, but we don't fear.

It was a beautiful day, too—real Democratic weather.

"President Wilson." It has a familiar sort of ring, hasn't it?

Is it a return to the old days? Virginia has furnished another President.

Wilson's automobile didn't "buck" with him Tuesday, it was the other fellows.

Wilson is far and away the ablest leader who has appeared in our public life during the present generation.

The people should accept President Wilson hopefully and with confidence responsive to his intellectual superiority.

Since 1852 when Scott led the Whigs to everlasting defeat there has been no such a landslide as that of Tuesday.

The Cincinnati Enquirer calls it "a political debacle." Maybe so, but at any rate the Democrats didn't do the debacking.

By the side of some who have offered for the Presidency Wilson is a prodigy of statesmanship and a miracle of safety.

In the White House stakes those who bet on Woodrow to win, on Teddy for place and William to show, carried off the money.

After 20 years in the wilderness, and Canaan now in sight it is perfectly proper to be glad at the prospect of having a taste of the pomegranates and the grapes of Eschol.

It is said that Mr. Taft will return to Cincinnati and resume the practice of law. He was an ornament to the profession and to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Some of the opposition papers rather tauntingly spoke of "Professor" Wilson and his college cap and gown. Seems like the people preferred these to those who bore the insignia of the Trusts.

The stars in their courses fought for Wilson. Just at the psychological moment, whatever that may be, things happened and happened to make sure his election, and when the Bull Moose stuck in his horn the thing was settled.

The Ballinger case helped and other blunders contributed, but the thing that has made Mr. Taft's reelection an impossibility has been his policy of opposition to any definite downward revision of the tariff.

In Mr. Wilson and his platform the people have at last the promise of what they want and they know it.

No successor to Vice President Sherman on the Republican ticket will be selected until after election, according to an announcement after a conference between the President and the Cabinet. Gov. Hadley, of Missouri, however, is favored by Mr. Taft and 18 of the Republican National Committee.

A Texas preacher is suing a railroad for $100 for the loss of four sermons. Would a jury selected from his congregation be for the plaintiff, or would it decide for the road?

A recent bulletin from the University experiment station at Lexington shows the largest average yield of corn in the state is Mason county—forty-four bushels per acre. The average yield for the state is twenty-five bushels.

A religious meeting in Dallas, Tex., so affected a man giving the name of G. H. Rose that he went to the county jail and made a confession of three crimes, one of which was the killing of W. H. Morris in Covington, Ky., twenty-four years ago.

Abolishing the manufacture of intoxicants in West Virginia will be an experiment, but one well worth the trying. Liquor is the direful spring of woes unnumbered in that State, causing 90 per cent of all the lawlessness in the mining districts. Mixed with boodle its power for evil is tremendous.

The speech made here on Saturday last by Congressman Fields was an excellent one. He speaks easily and pleasantly, and we doubt if there are many much older politicians and speakers who can present the time-worn topic of the tariff nearly so well as did Mr. Field on this occasion. He had a big crowd to hear him, and flattering comments on the speech were heard on all sides.

Remains Shipped to West Va.

The NEWS has received from Frank Allen, of Randluf, Utah, the following clipping from a paper published at Myton, Utah, with a request to publish.

Mr. Fontaine formerly lived in this section:

Funeral services over the remains of C. B. Fontaine, who was instantly killed Friday of last week by his wagon running over him, were held in the new hall Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Fontaine and daughter, Maud, arrived here from Salt Lake Sunday afternoon. They came in by way of Colton.

The entire community attended the ceremony to show the last respect to a man of integrity and sterling worth and who was held in the highest esteem by the whole country.

Deceased was born fifty-one years ago in the state of Mississippi and was educated for a minister in the Methodist faith and preached for a period of four years. He afterwards engaged in the furniture business in Kentucky but decided to turn his attention to farming. He was one of the early settlers on the Reservation taking up a homestead on Lakefork, about ten miles from Myton. By hard labor and perseverance he had just got his farm to a producing stage and where he could see the results of his untiring efforts.

At the request of his mother and a brother in West Virginia the remains were sent there for burial. Mrs. Fontaine accompanied them Monday afternoon.

The sympathy of the entire community is extended to those left behind—a wife, a daughter and two sons, Paul and Harold.

Have Moved To West Virginia.

Everybody in Louisa who knows them will regret the removal of Mr. Frank Millinder and family to West Virginia. Mr. Millinder has bought the Abe Cyrus farm, a short distance above Whites creek, and will go to truck farming. Judging from the amount of stuff—good stuff—that he raised on the Dr. Burgess place some years ago he will raise enough on his new possessions to feed the multitude. Mr. Millinder and his estimable family will be missed in Louisa.

EAST POINT.

Mrs. J. N. McGuire, of Ashland was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Julia Fitzpatrick Monday.

L. S. Moles made a business trip to Charleston, W. Va., last week.

Miss Grace Johnson, of Paintsville was visiting home folks Monday.

John Auxler, Jr., transacted business in Paintsville Tuesday.

Miss Lora Ramey entertained no Flinch Club at her home Tuesday evening. After many interesting games delicious refreshments were served. Music was enjoyed throughout the evening.

Jeff Music returned home Monday from Jenkins.

C. M. Summers, of Louisa, preached Saturday and Sunday at the Christian church.

DREAMY EYES

Mrs. Henry Bradley, of Campton, was burned from head to foot when her clothing became ignited from a stove. Her recovery is doubtful.

SOME CELEBRATION.

Women are taking a more and more important part in the political life of the country every day, and an illustration of the fact that they do not place the success of the candidates that they are interested in below the other most important things in their life is furnished by the invitation of Mrs. James O. Marcum to a few of her friends to a dinner the evening of November sixth to celebrate as she expresses it the three things in her life that she has been most interested in, first her birthday, second her wedding anniversary, and third the election of Woodrow Wilson.—Huntington paper.

COAL AND SLACKWATER.

The N. and W. coal business is flourishing and this morning and afternoon many double headed freight steamed through the city with hundreds of coal cars loaded down with West Virginia and Virginia coal. One double header that passed through about noon had 85 cars heavily loaded. Right after it came another double header with many cars equally loaded.

The failure of the river to allow for towboating has increased the amount of coal traffic over the railroads.—Credo Advance.

This is another argument, and a strong one, in favor of continuing to completion the project begun by the United States government for slackwater navigation on the Big Sandy and its forks.

Clinchfield Will Not Build.

President Mark W. Potter, of the Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio Railroad says that the recent reports to the effect that the company contemplates the construction of an independent line to reach the mines of the Consolidation Coal Co. at and near Jenkins, Ky., are without foundation. The company is now building to Elkhorn, Ky., and will connect there with the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway. This will afford a southern outlet for the output of the mines, which are situated on a branch railroad that connects with the C. & O. at Shelby, Ky.

John Cal. Snyder feels quite important, thank you, because many of his friends have been commenting on the fact that he bears considerable resemblance in size, walk and facial expression to President Taft. I am glad to confirm the testimonial I gave in 1909 when I told of the benefit Doan's Kidney Pills brought me. For years I had been a sufferer from pains through my back and I had difficulty in straightening after stooping. At night I was restless and when I arose in the morning I was tired. My kidney action was also irregular. Finally I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they gave me entire relief. The kidney action became regular and the pains an aches left."

Fire which originated in Field's office building at Whitesburg swept Miss Lucy Davis' millinery store, the Mineral Development Company's office, D. D. Field & Sons' law office, Adams Brothers' general store and the residence of S. E. Holcomb, causing a loss of about $20,000.

Aba Spillman, a domestic in the home of J. M. Barnhart, Morehead, took a dose of 27 grains of morphine one night last week with suicidal intent, following a quarrel with her sweetheart Charles Crawford.

Only the timely discovery of the woman by Mrs. Barnhart prevented her from passing to the great beyond.

A very damaging fire which caused great loss to some of the best men of our town was the loss of the Morehead Spoke Co.'s mill at noon Tuesday. Sparks from the engine flew into the refuse from the spoke turners, and set them on fire, and when noticed by the men left there, was in a large flame. Some of the stock which was in the mill was also burned. The loss is estimated at about $8,000, partly covered by insurance.—The Progressive.

We have it on good authority that the Standard Oil Company will tap their pipe line which crosses the creek about a mile and a half below Caney and run a branch line to Caney City for the purpose of removing the output of the well just drilled in at that place.

Drilling on the Elk Fork well began the first of this week and the work will be pushed until the work is finished. Drilling is expected to begin on White Oak as soon as the machinery can be moved and a derrick constructed. In the meantime other parties are taking leases and preparing to operate in different parts of the country.

STATE ARBOR DAY.

The Governor has issued a proclamation making Nov. 13th, Arbor day, and the State Superintendent requests that the school children of Kentucky plant 100,000 trees. Preparations are already being made by teachers to observe the day with appropriate exercises, and the planting of trees. Many have planned to plant fruit trees. Let us all observe this day.

There was a notable absence of disorder during the hours of voting last Tuesday. The private jug and the public bottle, however, furnished a good many with the liquid that makes the user silly, if no worse. AGRICULTURE IN SCHOOL.

Agriculture in its various branches is now receiving more study in Kentucky than ever before. This study has not been free and voluntary on the part of the people of Kentucky, but has been the natural outgrowth of conditions that have come into existence. These conditions may be summarized as follows:

Kentucky originally had enormous natural wealth in soils, in minerals and in forests. The early Kentuckians began to draw upon these natural resources and soon the opportunities offered by Kentucky became known to the outside world. In the field of agriculture the live stock industry soon came to the front and in the first half of the 19th century this state became the Mecca toward which many seekers of the best blood in beef cattle and light horses turned. From an industrial standpoint the cattle interests were the more important and while the light horse interests of Kentucky have always maintained their prestige, it is a lamentable fact that in the latter part of the 19th century we fell sadly behind in the breeding of other fine stock and in general agriculture. This period may almost be called a period of decadence. The soil had become sadly depleted, the forests had been butchered and the mining interests had fallen largely into the hands of people who were not Kentuckians. All these circumstances conspired to drain Kentucky's wealth. With the incoming of the 20th century, however, the people who had already come to realize that things were going wrong, began to look about for means of improvement.

The writer happens to be one who is enlisted in the work of agricultural improvement. A person attempting such work has various difficulties to encounter. The task is a hard one in itself, even if all concerned had a heart and hand to help. One of the principal difficulties is the prejudice against the theoretical farmer, many insisting that the teacher should be, above all things, a practical farmer. We should here recall the fact that the practical farmer has had his way since the country was first settled and the result of his operations is such a depletion of the soil that it produces in most cases less than half of what it could have produced if the theoretical farmer who is engaged in improving agriculture has in every case been made to put his theory into practice and to succeed with it before he has been licensed to teach others. The state and federal authorities realize that the problem is so important that none other than proven masters are employed for such work.

Conditions, however, must be taken as they are found and the prejudice of many of the older farmers has been taken into due account. With this in mind, the boys and girls, less circumscribed and dogmatic in their ideas, are being given a large proportion of the attention of experts in agriculture. The result is that these boys and girls are putting into practice the things that they have learned, are making them succeed, and, largely as a result of their work, the adult farmers are being led to see that farming is a business and a science which must have study if it is to succeed.

Agriculture should be taught not only in every high school and private school of the country, but also in every district school, and it is

FELT BAD ALL THE TIME

Shellhorn Lady Suffered a Great Deal, But Is All Right Now.

Shellhorn, Ala.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. Carrie May says: "A short time ago, I commenced to have weak spells and headaches. I felt bad all the time, and soon grew so bad I couldn't stay up. I thought I would die. At last my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, and it helped me; so he got some more. After I had taken the second bottle, I was entirely well."

I wish every lady, suffering from womanly trouble, would try Cardui. It is the best medicine I know of. It did me more good than anything I ever used."

Cardui is a woman's tonic—a strengthening medicine for women, made from ingredients that act specifically on the womanly organs, and thus help to build up the womanly constitution to glowing good health.

As a remedy for woman's ills, it has a successful record of over 35 years.

Your druggist sells it. Please try it. It is sold by J. B. McClure, 100 N. 2nd St., Louisville, Ky. 10-cent bottles, 50-cent bottles, and 10-page book. Home treatment of women. Sent in plain wrapper, on request.

only a matter of a short time until such teaching will be required and the teacher must be qualified in the elements of scientific agriculture. Better pay for teachers is a crying need, especially in Kentucky, but any bill introduced into our legislature to increase the pay of teachers would have a hard chance of passage, largely on account of the lack of funds in the state treasury. Consider this condition for a moment. We know that a state is but an enlarged picture of the average citizen of that state and naturally the wealth of a state is commensurate with the wealth or earning capacity of the average citizen. That a trained farmer can make an acre produce 50 per cent and often many hundred per cent more than it has formerly produced, has been proven too often to need words here. Obviously the whole subject resolves itself into the fact that it is supremely important that every child should be given a chance to learn the scientific principles of agriculture.

European countries have demonstrated the fact that soil may be used for hundreds of years and instead of being depleted, may be made the better for having been used.

Agriculture is the mainstay of Kentucky and Kentucky's agricultural progress will be measured by the development of her live stock industry. The live stock interests of the state have made such improvement in the last few years and bid fair to regain the former prestige of Kentucky in the live stock. If live stock and live stock products alone could be sold from Kentucky farms for ten years, the increase in fertility and productive power would be marvelous.

Every part of the state is well suited for some kind of agriculture. For example, while general farming on an extensive scale may not be possible in the mountains, the poultry and horticultural interests should be highly developed. To avoid failure, one principle should be observed and that is, to begin on a small scale and grow into the business.

One of the best possible projects for any boy or girl is to get a few fowls of some good breed, or even a few eggs, and make a beginning, using all the information available as to the best methods of feeding, breeding and management. Again and again it has been demonstrated that the pure bred animal of any class of live stock is more profitable than the scrub, hence the importance of beginning right. A pair of pure bred pigs well cared for would be a benefit, not only to the boy making the investment, but also to his neighbors.

We might continue indefinitely to name easy possibilities for the farm boy or girl in any section of the state. The Agricultural College or Experiment Station at Lexington is ready and glad to help any person in the state who is trying to succeed in any agricultural undertaking, and their services are free.

Supt. of Extension Division,

Duties of Teachers.

To attempt to say anything new on a general topic like "Duties of Teachers," is like trying to renovate a thread-bare theme. There is danger of dealing in platitudes. But the "young ideas must be taught how to shoot." The school teacher in the public school, contrary to tradition, bears the distinction of holding the most responsible part in society. Such being the case, what requirements should turn up the personnel of the teacher? Let us see.

Broadly speaking, the aim of every teacher should be to fit the pupil for society, by moulding him into available shape for society, a good citizen. The duty of the teacher, therefore, is threefold: First, like the parent in the home, the ideals of obedience and manliness should be infused into the pupil. Second, the teacher should draw out of the pupil all of his dormant, latent possibilities, by teaching him how to think, and how to investigate for himself. Teacher, don't commit the "unpardonable sin" of doing all the talking yourself. Third, the teacher, who is himself without principle or morals, has no business trying to act as sponsor for American youths. How can a teacher believe a pupil's eye from the mote, with a beam in his own eye?

In conclusion: Show the pupil that you are his friend. The first essential is to gain his favor. Get his good will and friendship—and you can make a good citizen out of him. Above all, don't leave the impression with either your student or the patrons of your school division that you are engaged in the business merely from the mercenary standpoint. Such teachers are parasites—esting into the vitals of the public, and as such, ought to be eliminated.

Finally, teachers, be yourselves; be sincere; work! work! work; do something for your school district, and you will get the job again the next year.

Prof. Sandy Valley Seminary,

Home Making—A Business.

If there is one thing a woman should know before everything else it is how to make a home. Many think homemaking is instinctive and every woman can care for a home when the proper time comes. It is quite as sensible to expect a man to be able to give a musical concert without practice or preparation because he has the talent for music.

After the sad experience of many a woman trying to make a home without any training, either in her own home or elsewhere, people have finally come to the conclusion that home making is a business and every girl, whether rich or poor, should be taught that business.

Domestic Science, which means the science of home making, includes more than cooking a few fancy dishes and making samples and fancy work in sewing.

In the first place there is generally a limited amount to be spent on the home. Since most of the money earned by the head of the household must directly or indirectly be spent by the woman, she must know something about bookkeeping in order to know where her money is going and how she is spending it. This necessitates a knowledge of prices, relative values of food and materials—how much money she is able to spend on each department, such as, rent, clothing and food. So many houses are run on an extravagant basis. No money is being laid up and the mention of financial affairs brings a look of distress to the wife's face and a sour sullen inapproachable expression to the face of the husband. If the work in the house is being done by servants, it behooves the woman of the house to be able to handle her accounts and handle them well, for often more is wasted than is really used.

Aside from the financial side of the question there is the matter of food. This branch is generally taught in the school when Domestic Science is taught at all. This not only includes the preparation of the food but the nutritive value, relative cost, proper combining in order to get the amount and kind of nourishment the family needs, and ways and means of serving it. Very closely related to this is the care of the children, how to feed, dress, bathe, nurse and care for them from infancy on up to womanhood and manhood. How many sad and pitiful stories we know of mothers, who through ignorance have killed their babies with patent medicines and lack of proper care.

We should also know how to take care of our own bodies, the need of fresh air and proper exercise. The symptoms of common diseases and how to do in a general way. It is very important that every woman in whatever station of life knows how to help and lend intelligent aid in the sick room.

We not only need to be fed but we must be clothed. This branch of Domestic Science is also taught in the schools along with cooking. This includes the making of garments, use of patterns and drafting. Back of all this every woman should know how to test different fabrics to distinguish the difference between woolen and cotton material, between cotton and linen. There are simple store tests which are very necessary to know. After she is able to examine material she should know the kinds of material to use in various seasons and occupations of the different members of the family this also includes the matter of good taste, the combining of colors, the choosing of garments which are suitable and becoming. The dressing of children is very important in order to save labor and make them comfortable.

Not only must we be clothed and fed, but we must be sheltered. This concerns the decoration of the house. Our home can be in good taste, suitable to the needs of the family and comfortable; or they can be filled with a lot of shoddy, superfluous, material that has no use to the people to whom it belongs or anyone else. The house necessitates a general knowledge of plumbing, heating, ventilation, and architecture to make it beautiful as well as healthful. One should know how to choose a site for a house and the kind of house suitable for that particular location. In short no two houses can be built and furnished exactly alike because the tastes, needs and ideals of two families are never the same. This doesn't mean the expenditure of more money but rather a saving of money because one should know what is needed and buy only that.

How often have we heard it said by parents that it is no use to educate the girl from teaching them to read and write. Girls to be home makers need the best education the parents are able to give them for home making is the highest and most sacred work in this whole big land of ours. To make our homes as they should be the women need the results of the work of chemists, geologists, architects, and artists to the homes, to prepare the food and to buy and select the clothing. They must have the aid of physicians to teach them to care for the children and themselves.

Home making is Domestic Science. In order to make homes we must have women of many interests, strong bodies, good taste, well balanced and liberally educated. This is all included under the head of good common sense which can only be accomplished through our schools and particularly in the so called Domestic Science Department.

Tuesday, Oct. 22, 1912, was a "Red Letter Day" in school affairs at Gallup.

State Supervisor T. J. Coates, County Superintendent Jay O'Daniel and Supervisor J. H. Ekers were visitors in the school. They first watched the work being done, next examined and quizzed about the work and results, and then gave addresses.

The school, patrons, and other visitors were delighted and highly entertained and instructed with the addresses.

The citizens feel greatly honored by the complimentary remarks the gentlemen in regard to the great work of the school, because they have sacrificed to make the school what it is.

OBITUARY.

On Saturday night Oct. 26, 1912, our Heavenly Father saw fit in his wisdom to call to himself our dear old beloved friend, Keith Queen, son of James and Cora Queen, his mother having preceded him to the glory land about one year ago. His age was 17 years, 10 months and 20 days. His untimely death was a shock to all. He came to his death at Rush school house by a fatal knife used by known hands. He was the idol of all who knew him. He was a kind and loving friend to all his associates. He had a kind word for all, and was very obedient to his father. Why Keith was taken we cannot tell; we know it is hard when death plucks what seems to us the brightest gem, when we miss their smiles, tender words and loving caresses. 'Tis then that we realize our great loss but in the sanctuary of God's love and promises there is a recompense for all our sadness; but nature is changing her robes to somber lines and tints, flowers that have cheered us on life's pathway refuse to raise their dainty heads, but experience teaches us that the agencies of spring will bring them back again. So it is with our loved ones when the chilly winds of death wither the vital, not our experience but faith impels us to believe it is only for a season. But how hard it is in our heart's bereavement to realize that comfort which removes all senses of loss when those we have reared with such tender care are removed if only for a season.

Keith leaves father, two brothers, Ray and Ronald, and one little sister, Ella, to mourn his loss. To these we extend our deepest sympathy. His funeral was preached by Bro. Leslie in the presence of over three hundred relatives and friends. Well does the poet say, "It is hard to break the tender cord when love has bound the heart, 'tis hard, so hard, to speak the word, must we forever part?"

DEMOCRATS SWEEP THE COUNTRY IN BIG LANDSLIDE FOR WILSON.

Carry Most of the Eastern States.

ALSO INVADE THE WEST

Roosevelt Runs Second, With Taft a Poor Third.

HOUSE SOLIDLY DEMOCRATIC

"Uncle Joe" Cannon is Retired to Private Life, But Nick Longworth Retains Grip on Job.

New York, Nov. 6.—Woodrow Wilson, whose experience in active politics is only a little more than two years old, will be the next president of the United States. At the hour of writing this dispatch he seems to have carried every eastern state except Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont and New Hampshire.

Ex-President Roosevelt has carried Illinois, while the rock-ribbed Republican state of Vermont is in doubt between Taft and Roosevelt.

That ancient bulwark of Republicanism, Pennsylvania, is in doubt between Wilson and Roosevelt. Michigan, equally strong in past years in its allegiance to the Republican party, has probably been carried by Roosevelt.

The Democratic victory in many of these rock-ribbed Republican states was due entirely to the split in the Republican party and to the candidacy of ex-President Roosevelt. In most of these states Roosevelt got the labor vote and the radical Republican vote.

Progressives Gain Control.
In all states where Roosevelt and the Progressive candidates for governor have run second to Wilson and the Democratic candidates for governor, the Progressive party will have control of the election machinery over the Republicans beginning with next year's municipal campaigns. This control will extend to 1914 in the state elections for governor and members of the legislature.

In New York state, in all counties where Oscar S. Straus, the Progressive candidate for governor, has run second to William Sulzer, the Progressives will have control of the election machinery over the Republicans beginning with next year's municipal elections. This control will also extend, according to law, to 1914, when a governor is to be elected and a legislature is also to be elected which will elect a United States senator to succeed Elihu Root.

New Mexico, which the Progressives thought was sure for Roosevelt, has apparently been carried by Wilson. California is safely for Roosevelt, but North Dakota, which the Democrats thought was safe for Wilson, seems to be about equally divided between Taft and Roosevelt.

But in spite of the lack of returns from the plains and the mountain states of the west, there seems to be no doubt that Woodrow Wilson, with the solid south and the solid east, or almost the solid east, behind him will not only have a plurality of the popular vote, but will have a majority in the electoral college.

Joe Cannon Defeated.
"Uncle" Joe Cannon, who has represented the Eighteenth Illinois district since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, has gone down to defeat.

The few returns received in Louisiana have brought some disappointment to the Progressives of that state. The strong anticipated Roosevelt sentiment seems to have eaten into normal Democratic plurality by less than 10 per cent. In many parts of the state Debs ran ahead of Taft.

A dispatch from Denver states that the vote in Colorado was unusually heavy all over the state, but that because of the long ballot and the many constitutional amendments submitted to the people the result will not be known before this afternoon.

In Indiana the Democratic governor is probably elected. Beveridge has been defeated and the legislature is probably Democratic.

Roosevelt will carry Michigan by from 75,000 to 100,000. This is based on official returns from half of the counties in the state. Ferris (Dem.) for governor will probably be elected by 25,000 plurality.

New York.
New York, Nov. 6.—Wilson carried New York state by approximately 150,000, and Sulzer wins by nearly the same plurality. Wilson carried the city of New York by a plurality of about 125,000 over Roosevelt, Taft running third. Sulzer's plurality is about 110,000 over Stram.

THE NEXT PRESIDENT

Woodrow Wilson Ran Away From Roosevelt and Taft.

© 1911, by American Press Association.

they term "the theft of the state machinery" by the Roosevelt party, but in spite of this it seems from returns that Roosevelt has swept the state. Wilson's managers in various parts of the state, however, still claim that he will carry the state by 10,000 plurality. Roosevelt's supporters, on the other hand, claim the state by 50,000 plurality. The women voters, casting their first votes for the presidency, are reported divided, about 65 per cent for Roosevelt and 35 per cent for Wilson. They polled practically their entire strength throughout the state.

Connecticut.
Hartford, Conn., Nov. 6.—Connecticut swung back to the Democratic ranks. The vote of the state shows the choice of electors who will cast the seven votes of the state for Woodrow Wilson, that decision being by a plurality of 1,000. Simeon Baldwin, the Democratic candidate for governor of the state, is re-elected by a plurality that threatens to exceed 15,000. The election of five Democratic congressmen is indicated.

Wisconsin.
Milwaukee, Nov. 6.—Wisconsin has gone Democratic. The Roosevelt vote will probably be under 50,000. Estimates are that Wilson carried the state by 15,000 and Karel, Democratic candidate for governor, by at least 35,000. In Milwaukee county, the Socialists were swept out of office by a combination of Republicans and Democrats. Wisconsin's representation in congress will probably be unchanged.

New Jersey.
Newark, N. J., Nov. 6.—At Democratic headquarters it is claimed that Wilson has carried the state. Ten or 12 Democratic congressmen have been elected. The claim is also made that there will be a Democratic majority on joint ballot in the legislature, thus making it certain that a Democratic United States senator will be chosen.

Georgia.

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 6.—Georgia has returned all of her Democratic congressmen. The state house officials have all been elected and are Democratic. The legislature is strictly Democratic, not a Republican or Progressive being returned. Indications are that Wilson will carry the state by 2 to 1 majority. Roosevelt will get more popular votes than President Taft, due to the influence of Tom Watson, who deserted Wilson two weeks ago, charging that Wilson had joined the Knights of Columbus.

Tennessee.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 6.—The race for governor between the present incumbent, B. W. Hooper, candidate of the fusion of Independent Democrats, and Prohibitionists, and Benton McMillan, Democrat, is close and will take the vote of east Tennessee to decide. Wilson carried the state by a large plurality.

Michigan.

Detroit, Nov. 6.—Judging from incomplete returns from Michigan the vote cast in the state was the heaviest ever known, practically the entire registration going to the polls to vote. Returns show Roosevelt far in the lead with more votes than Taft and Wilson combined.

Kentucky.

Louisville, Nov. 6.—Returns show a gain for Wilson over the majority received by Governor McCreary last year. Roosevelt's strength was surprising, and Taft leaders are doubtful if the president runs second in the state.

Utah.

Salt Lake City, Nov. 6.—Both the Republican and Progressive chairmen claim the state for their respective candidates. Chairman Gardner, Republican, says Taft carried the state by 10,000, while Walton, Progressive, claims it for Roosevelt by 3,000.

West Virginia.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 6.—Republican leaders in the state concede that Wilson has carried the state, but say claim that the Republicans have elected Howard Sutherland congressman-at-large. Democrats concede the election of Dr. Hatfield as governor of West Virginia over W. R. Thompson, Democrat. Socialists polled a large vote in the coal fields. Liquor men admit the state has gone dry.

Indiana.

Indianapolis, Nov. 6.—Fifty precincts in Indianapolis: Wilson 10,174; Taft 4,263; Roosevelt 5,917. Fifty-three precincts, Indianapolis, for governor: Ralston, Dem., 10,422; Durbin, Rep., 4,260; Beveridge, 4,963.

Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 6.—Early returns show Wilson in the lead. The cities only have reported so far. The Democrats claim the election of their entire ticket and four congressmen.

Massachusetts.

Boston, Nov. 6.—Late returns show Taft gains, and the president's managers claim that he will run second to Wilson, who has carried the state by almost 100,000.

New Hampshire.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 6.—Indications are that New Hampshire's electoral vote will go to Taft and that Roosevelt will run third in the race in this state.

Maine.

Portland, Me., Nov. 6.—Indications are that Wilson has carried Maine by 15,000. In 1908 Taft carried state by 31,500.

Alabama.

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 6.—Indications point to a total vote of 100,000. Wilson has 70,000, Roosevelt 20,000 and Taft 10,000.

Kansas.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 6.—Early returns from country precincts indicate a two to one vote for Roosevelt.

BRYAN CONGRATULATES WILSON

Believes New Administration Will Prove Blessing to Nation.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6.—Returns indicate that on a lighter vote than in 1908, Wilson has carried the state by upwards of 15,000. Stephens has been re-elected to congress in the Third district. Sloan, Republican, is probably elected in the Ninth. Wilson carries Lancaster, Bryan's home county.

William J. Bryan forwarded the following congratulatory message to Governor Wilson: "I most heartily congratulate you and the country upon your election. Your splendid campaign has borne fruit in great victory. I am sure your administration will prove a blessing to the country and a source of strength to our party."

WILSON TO YOUNG MEN

Has No Feeling of Triumph but of Responsibility.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 6.—Woodrow Wilson, in a speech to the students, said:

"I have no feeling of triumph, but of solemn responsibility. I know the great task that is ahead of me and the men who are associated with me. I look almost with pleading to you, the young men of America, to stand behind me and to support me in the new administration and the purest impulses are needed."

"I have a feeling that something has just happened in which you men will play a great part in carrying forward the work we have started today."

ROOSEVELT OPTIMISTIC

Declares Progressive Policies Will Triumph in the End.

Oyster Bay, Nov. 6.—Colonel Roosevelt issued the following statement: "The American people by a great plurality have decided in favor of Mr. Wilson and the Democratic party. Like all other good citizens I accept the result with entire good humor and contentment. As for the Progressive cause, I can only repeat what I have already so many times said, the fate of the leader for the time is of little consequence, but the cause itself must in the end triumph, for its triumph is essential to the well being of the people."

TAFT ON THE RESULT

Sees Danger in Agitation For Changes in Constitution.

Cincinnati, Nov. 6.—President Taft conceded the election of Governor Wilson shortly before 11 o'clock. Mr. Taft gave out this statement upon the result of the election:

"The returns insure the election of Governor Wilson to the presidency. This means an early change in the economic policy of the government in reference to the tariff. If this change can be made without halting prosperity, I sincerely hope it may be."

"The vote for Mr. Roosevelt, the third party candidate, and for Mr. Debs, the Socialist candidate, is warning that their propaganda in favor of fundamental changes in our constitutional, representative government, has formidable support."

"We must make clear to the young men of the country who have been weaned away from sound principles of government by promise of reforms impossible of accomplishment by mere legislation, that patriotism and common sense require them to return to a support of our constitution. Without compromising our principles we must convince and win back for our Republicans, and we must re-force our ranks with constitution-loving Democrats."

JAMES COX ELECTED GOVERNOR BY OHIOANS

OHIO'S NEXT GOVERNOR

James M. Cox, Who Was Elected by the People Yesterday.

IS DEMOCRATIC IN BOTH BRANCHES

New Congress to See Absence of Many Familiar Faces.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The new congress is Democratic in both branches. The senate will probably stand 52 Democrats and 44 Republicans and the house 294 Democrats, 125 Republicans, 15 Progressives and 1 Socialist.

Uncle Joe Cannon is among the defeated, but Colonel Roosevelt's son-in-law, Nicholas Longworth of Cincinnati, slipped in by a narrow margin as did also Sereno E. Payne of New York, at present chairman of the minority of the house, and John Weeks of Massachusetts.

The Democratic gain in Massachusetts was not anywhere nearly as great as the enthusiastic Bay State leaders imagined. In Ohio the indications are that the Republicans will have only two or three congressmen, while in the present house they have five. There will be 18 Republican congressmen from New York, as against 14 in the present house.

In the senate the Progressive leaders were smitten hip and thigh. George W. Norris and Joseph M. Dixon, the national Progressive chairman, are surely defeated, and probably Senator Jonathan Bourne of Oregon and William S. Kenyon of Colorado.

Governor Stubbs of Kansas will probably fall on the election.

Progressives Hit Hard.

In the senate the Democratic gains are: One in Colorado, where Senator Guggenheim retires; one in Iowa, where Senator Kenyon retires; one in Kansas, where Senator Curtis retires; one in Montana, where Senator Dixon goes out; one in Nebraska to take the place of Senator Norris Brown; one in New Jersey to take the place of Senator Briggs, and probably one in Nevada, taking the place of Senator Massey.

In Massachusetts it is expected that on joint ballot for United States senator the legislature will be very close. There is a possibility that the Progressives may hold the balance of power.

Several of the senators whose terms will expire next March already have been re-elected by the state legislatures and were not therefore involved in yesterday's balloting.

Several faces that have been familiar to visitors in the senate galleries for many years will be missing after March 4 next, among them being Senator Bailey of Texas.

Chairman Dixon on Result.

New York, Nov. 6.—Joseph M. Dixon, chairman of the Progressive national committee, gave out the following statement: "The result of yesterday's ballot makes the Progressive party the dominant opponent of the Democratic party. We are going forward immediately with our plans to complete our organization for the congressional election in two years from this time. I have issued a call to the Progressive national committee to meet in Chicago, Tuesday, Dec. 10."

Woman's Suffrage Lost.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 6.—Woman's suffrage has been defeated in Wisconsin, according to early incomplete returns.

Caleb Powers Re-Elected.

Middleburg, Ky., Nov. 6.—Caleb Powers has been re-elected to congress.

Missouri.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 6.—Indications are that Wilson and Hafer for governor have swept the state.

State Ticket Is Also Democratic.

LEGISLATURE IS IN LINE

Republicans Stand to Lose Congressmen.

RUN SECOND ON STATE TICKET

Many Democratic County Officials Owe Success to Presidential Landslide.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 6.—With returns from many scattered precincts in Ohio it is known that Wilson has carried the state by a plurality of perhaps 125,000 and that Cox, Democratic candidate for governor, is elected by an even greater plurality.

With this margin there is reason to believe that the Democrats have elected their state ticket complete and have re-elected 13 out of 22 congressmen.

They also have elected from surface indications a large majority in both houses of the assembly.

One of the most bitter fights was for congress in the Twelfth district, where from indications C. L. Brumbaugh, Democrat, endorsed by the Progressives, has beaten E. L. Taylor, Jr., who has represented the district for six years.

Taft runs second in Ohio. He easily defeated Roosevelt in the southern part of the state and in the northern part. Roosevelt's predicted pluralities failed to materialize. In fact, he was beaten by Wilson in the northern part by about the same margin as Taft was in the southern. By showing up in second place, the Republicans in Ohio retain their position as one of the two major parties, entitled to representation in boards of election and the like.

Ohio gave her electoral vote to a Democrat for the first time since the war and the Democrats elected a complete state ticket for the second time in history. Throughout the state the Wilson and Cox landslide carried Democratic candidates into county offices.

For governor, General R. B. Brown of Zanesville, Republican, probably leads Arthur L. Garford, Progressive candidate. By that accomplishment the Republican party preserved its place as one of the major parties in Ohio and retains right to membership on boards of elections and to other patronage.

Wilson polled practically the full Democratic vote, receiving more than the Bryan vote of 1908. With the exception of Hamilton, he carried all the large counties. His estimated plurality in Cuyahoga is 7,000, in Montgomery 7,000, in Franklin 3,000 to 4,000, and he carried Lucas by a slight plurality.

Cox, who ran ahead of Wilson almost everywhere, made his biggest lead in his home county, Montgomery, which County Chairman E. W. Hanley claimed had given Cox 10,000.

The Socialists made some gains. Fragmentary reports indicated Debs, for president, and Ruthenberg, for governor, have each more than 75,000 votes.

Chairman Finley's Statement.

State Chairman William L. Finley said: "Wilson has carried Ohio by more than 100,000 and Cox's plurality exceeds Wilson's. The remainder of the Democratic ticket is elected by pluralities equaling or exceeding Wilson's."

Wilson, Cox and the Democratic state ticket probably have carried five-sixths of the counties.

Wilson is estimated to have carried such strong Republican counties as Portage by 1000, Stark by 2500, Miami by 1200, Logan by 400, Hancock by 1400, Champaign by 1000, Scioto by 100, Belmont by 100, Union by 400.

Partial returns indicate the election of only four Republican congressmen. Nicholas Longworth is re-elected in the First district. In the Second district Allen, Dem., probably is defeated by Otto J. Renner, Rep. In the Sixth district the election of S. D. Fess, Dem., is claimed over Hempstead, Dem. In the Sixteenth district General David A. Hollingsworth, Rep., is leading Congressman Francis, Dem.

In the Eighth W. W. Durbin, Dem., has carried Logan, Champaign and Hardin counties and probably has defeated Congressman Frank B. Willis.

In the Fourteenth Congressman William G. Sharp, Dem., has been re-elected by 6000.

Indications are that Clement L. Brumbaugh, Democratic candidate for congress from the Twelfth district, is elected over Congressman E. L. Taylor, Jr., by 4000 to 5000 plurality.

"Goosefleshy" Weather

is at the door. Soon, thrills and chills will "two-step" up and down your spine. Soon, you'll be flailed by cutting winds and nipping frosts. Then, you'll need a Northcott-Tate-Hagy Co. Overcoat—an overcoat that doesn't weigh on you like an "unmailed letter," but one that is warm without being weighty, because, their scientific shoulder construction and perfect division of balance distribute the weight so that you don't feel it anywhere—an overcoat in which walking is a pleasure, because, they do not hem and hamper your legs as in overcoats that are faultily drafted and draped.

We show everything in overcoats and many things to be found only here.

A Sick Man

Writes Dr. Hartman About Kidney Disease.

S. B. Hartman, M. D.

A gentleman writes me: "I was greatly interested in your article describing the Kauffmann case of serious disease of the kidneys. The description of his case exactly outlines my condition. I am sure if Peruna cured him as you say, it would cure me also. I am losing flesh rapidly and the doctors say I have every symptom of Bright's disease of the kidneys. If you think I would be benefited by Peruna I will certainly try some as the doctors have practically given me up, the same as they did him."

In reply I wish to say, first, that I never make any promises as to what Peruna will cure. No physician can make positive statements of that sort. I can say this much, however, if I were in your place I should certainly give Peruna a trial. I know of no other remedy that would be so likely to be of use to you in your present condition as Peruna. Take a tablespoonful before each meal and at bedtime. Continue this for two or three weeks and then if there is anything you wish to ask me further write me and I will give your letter prompt attention.

If I find that the Peruna is not helping you I will be perfectly frank and tell you so, for I would not have you take Peruna unless it was really helping you. But it has rescued so many cases of kidney disease that I am quite confident you will find it exactly suited to your case.

Kidney disease begins with catarrh of the kidneys. Peruna is a catarrh remedy. Unless the destruction of the kidneys is already too great Peruna relieves the catarrh and the cause of the kidney disease is removed.

I shall anxiously await a report of your case. Remember, all letters are sacredly confidential. I never use any one's name or address without his written consent. My correspondence is absolutely private. PERUNA IS FOR SALE AT ALL DRUG STORES.

SPECIAL NOTICE—Many persons are making inquiries for the old-time Peruna. To such would say, this formula is now put out under the name of KA-TAR-NO, manufactured by KA-TAR-NO Company, Columbus, Ohio. Write them and they will be pleased to send you a free booklet.
